Our Society was founded in 1985 - to help celebrate Vancouver's Centennial & Expo 86.

At the time, it was incorporated and registered in Victoria as:

The Scandinavian Festival Society.

In June 1987, the name was changed to:

The Scandinavian Cultural Society.

The Certification under the Society Act reads as follows:

- 1) To Function as a corporate body of Scandinavian organizations and individuals interested in the purpose herein.
- 2) To Preserve and promote good will and better understanding among Scandinavians.
- 3) To work with other societies having purposes in harmony with those of this society.
- 4) To perpetuate memories and traditions from Scandinavia for the benefit of future generations of British Columbians.
- 5) To promote the awareness of contributions that Scandinavians have made to B.C. and the world.
- 6) To promote and carry out Scandinavian Cultural events and activities.
- 7) To promote and support the arts, crafts and endeavors of Scandinavian heritage.
- 8) To borrow, raise, provide or otherwise secure funds in such manner as the society may see fit for the purpose herein.
- 9) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the purposes herein, or for the necessary or proper operation of the said society.
